External Scholarship List

In addition to the Institutional and Federal financial aid available, CDSP expects all students who need financial assistance to seek out external scholarships to help cover their educational costs. This list was created as a resource to help you get started. We recommend checking with your home parish and/or diocese about the availability of aid for seminary students as well. The scholarships below are not directly affiliated with CDSP and all information listed is subject to change; click on the links for the most current and comprehensive information. If you find that any of the scholarships or links on this list are no longer active, or if you know of another scholarship that would be appropriate for this list, please contact finaid@cdsp.edu.
