1. What did you hear as the central idea or theme of the sermon? Was it clear or were there multiple competing themes?
2. What human problem, need or concern was addressed? How well did the sermon reflect/address the needs of the specific gathered congregation?
3. What "Good News" (Gospel) was proclaimed in response to the aspects described in #2 above?
4. How were the theme and message informed by the readings from the lectionary, scriptural exegesis, and/or Anglican/Episcopal tradition (be specific)?
